

Invisible

In this world, people think only believe what is visible, yet there is way more on this planet than just what they can see with their eyes.

“Beauty is not in the face,
beauty is a light in the heart”

-Khalil Gibran

I myself am not particularly an amazing looking girl, so I've never expected to be the center of attention, until One day, my friend told me that I was a pretty girl and had a beautiful heart. I was shocked by her words and that was the day I learned: Beauty isn't about having a stunning face, but possessing a kind personality.

Now, I have a different vision of people surrounding me. If I look around, thousands of generous hearts shine brighter than their corporal shell. Earth never has too many generous humans. Kindness is beauty, and beauty can sometimes be invisible.

Remember, Beauty is on the inside....
